

Andrew Marden is the Sports Director at the CBS/NBC duopoly in Fresno, CA. He oversees a department of three people in addition to anchoring daily sportscasts and hosting a weekly sports show. Andrew has more than 16 years of broadcasting experience. His resume includes being chosen by his company to cover three of the last four Super Bowls as well as the two most recent Olympics, in Rio and PyeongChang!